

Testing

Requirement testing: PDF

USER/COSTUMER

- Case1: can the user create an account and stored in the database: yes
- Case2: does the user has his own profile that can be used after login: no
- Case3: are they going to be able to contact with people who are providing the services (Freelancers): no
- Case4: are they going to be able to book for an appointment after they login: yes
- Case5: are they going to get a message with a number: no
- Case6: are they going to be able to cancel the appointment: yes
- Case7: are they going to be able to enter the number that they were given to cancel the appointment: no
- Case8: are they going to reserve a message that saying that they will get their money back as soon as possible: no

BUSINESS:

- Case1: is there a separate account for the business and stored in different table in database: yes
- Case2: can they view some pages before they apply for the job: working on
- Case3: after creating an account can they contact with the customers: no
- Case4: can they create bookings: no
- Case5: can they create invoices: working on

ADMIN:

- Case1: an account for the admin and stored in different table in the database: yes
- Case2: can admin approve an application sent by a business: no
- Case3: can admin delete profiles: yes
- Case4: can admin access or looking for an accounts: yes

SHOPPING CART:

- Case1: is the shopping cart showing which product/service did you pick: yes
- Case2: is the shopping cart adding the total of the selected product/service: yes
- Case3: if the user changed his mind and decided to delete something, is he going to be able to delete it: yes
- Case4: is the total cost will update after deleting a product: yes

User interface principles: